3736-3742 Tongue Row
Ellicott City
Private

This two-story, four-bay, stone commercial duplex has a central brick chimney serving both halves of the structure. The building is four bays wide, with the doors in the first and fourth bays and 6/6 windows between. Shorter than its neighbor to the south (HO-310), the building has smaller 2nd floor windows, which have 3/3 sash. The first floor windows, however, have 6/6 sash.

The rear facade is three stories high, with doors in the 1st and 4th bays of the ground (basement) floor and 6/6 windows between, as well as all four bays on the 2nd floor. The 3rd floor has the same smaller 3/3 windows as the front.

All windows and doors have massive granite lintels. The corners of the building have granite quoins.
